Program Examples

Berlin: A City in Transformation – An Introduction

This tour explores Berlin's transformation since the fall of the Wall. Emphasis is placed on urban development, business, politics and culture. With a view to both the past and the future, participants are given an overview of economic themes and current issues facing the city.

Berlin On the Move – E-Mobility

This program provides an introduction to the topic of eMobility in Berlin. We showcase the city's groundbreaking pilot projects involving electric vehicles and its comprehensive network of charging stations. Not only will you get to know several electric vehicles and new products, you will also be invited to take an eMobile test drive through the city.

We would be happy to provide you with information on further programs and to create individual Berlin tours for you and your guests.
