From June 7 –17, entrepreneurs, bloggers, developers and designers will meet in Berlin

– the digital capital of Europe – for this year's ninth Berlin Web Week. At approximately 20 conferences, networking events, fairs and forums, visitors will have the opportunity to discuss topics and trends in the digital economy, the startup scene and the digital media landscape. With more than 100 lectures on digitization, Axel Springer NOAH16 Berlin is one of the highlight events of this year's Berlin Web Week, together with the HEUREKA founders' conference, Connexpo tools and the Fempreneur Summit. The 2016 Berlin Web Week is increasingly focusing on the business aspects of the digital economy. Other events include; the e-commerce conference, K5 Berlin, the online marketing finance conference, OMfin-Con; and, the European Venture Market, a network conference for entrepreneurs. Berlin Web Week is a joint initiative of the State of Berlin's Department of Economics, Technology and Research and the economic development agency, Berlin Partner for Business and Technology.

Axel Springer NOAH16 Berlin

NOAH Berlin offers entrepreneurs, investors and digital industry thought leaders a platform for open discussions on current trends within the Internet ecosystem. Axel Springer and NOAH bring together disruptive challengers and established champions with more than 100 lectures and discussions on the subject of digitization. This premier event takes place from 8th to 9th June 2016 at the Tempodrom.

HEUREKA

HEUREKA began as one of Berlin's first founders conferences and has become one of the most important events in the startup scene. At inspirational speeches, panels and workshops, founders and managers share their knowledge on key factors of success and help entrepreneurs and digital pioneers develop their business further. The one-day event, taking place on 7th June at Alte Münze Berlin, offers the perfect setting for networking with high-level investors.

Connexpo tools

From 15th to 16th June 2016, on the Berlin Exhibition Grounds, Connexpo tools will bring together tool providers and digital technology experts. Digital transitions at the workplace, in particular in small and medium-sized companies, are the focus of the third edition of this event. "Connexpo," as in Conference + Expo + Connection, is designed to highlight successes in digitization processes and demonstrate how companies can successfully engage digitally with customers, as a team and in management.

Fempreneur Summit

#FemSum16 - The Fempreneur Summit 2016, an inspiring event for self-employed startup-interested women, takes place in the Startup Hub Berlin on 9th June 2016. The conference will feature keynote speeches delivered by female founders and business experts such as Milena Glimbovski of Original Unverpackt, Val Racheeva of wefound.org, Masoud Kamali of WestTech Ventures, Felicia Mutterer of Straight Magazine and many more.
