The guide for businesses and start-ups
In just a few years, Berlin has developed at an extraordinary pace as a centre for business. Today, the city is known for its lively cultural scene and innovative start-ups and is regarded as a magnet for international talent.

At the same time, Berlin offers the best-possible foundation for innovation and growth. For some time now, Berlin’s economic growth rates have surpassed those of the rest of the country. Around 45,000 more people find jobs here each year. This huge success is largely down to entrepreneurs in Berlin.

The high density of excellent universities and research institutes and the related wealth of highly qualified employees is one of the city’s outstanding strengths that benefits innovative companies in particular. It is, after all, the innovative capacity of companies that determines whether a centre for business surpasses others in terms of quality. Innovation drives economic development, it shapes the competitiveness of entire regions and plays a major role in structural change.

In recent years, Berlin has advanced to become one of the world’s leading start-up hubs. For years now, Berlin has recorded around 40,000 start-ups each year, including around 9,000 newly founded companies. Although Berlin is still a comparatively young start-up hub, Germany’s capital city is now already being mentioned in the same breath as New York, Tel Aviv and London. The city’s openness is the secret to its special climate, a climate that enables Berlin’s start-up ecosystem to thrive to such an outstanding degree.

This new culture of self-employment covers the entire range of economic activity, from retail and services to crafts, technology companies and the creative sector. Ultimately, however, it is the special mix of companies, i.e. their legal form, size and ideas, that goes into shaping Berlin’s flair as a centre for business.

This diversity of business ideas and boundary conditions calls for flexible and differentiated offers of support by the Federal State of Berlin. These range from small micro-loans of up to EUR 25,000, which are granted within the scope of the SME fund, to large-scale loans or grants as well as the provision of venture capital within the scope of investments in the millions.

This edition of the Business Support Guide will provide you with a good overview and will show how you can make use of the support offered by the Federal State of Berlin. It also highlights new programmes, such as the opening of the micro-loan for refugees, the simplification of the application procedure for the “Pro FIT” innovation support programme or the new Start-upBonus that is designed to support start-ups during the initial phase.

It goes without saying that staff at Investitionsbank Berlin and at my department will be pleased to meet you in person.

I hope you enjoy reading this Guide and I would like to wish you every success in your business endeavours.

Ramona Pop
Berlin’s economy now stands on a much broader basis than one year ago. The economy continues to develop at a rapid pace and this expansion is not only down to consumer spending but also to investments by companies in Berlin. Together with the plump investment coffers of the public sector, this provided the required economic tailwind for the current year.

In other words, a good environment for entrepreneurs, start-ups and new companies. That being said, however, it is important to provide the right information. Which support products are available, what kind of coaching is on offer, where can the right advice be found, for instance, when it comes to starting up your own business? That’s where the 2018/2019 Business Support Guide can help. It is the Guide for companies and start-ups in Berlin. For years now, we have compiled the Guide in co-operation with the Senate Department for Economics, Energy and Public Enterprises, the commercial banks active in Berlin as well as other organisations who bear responsibility for our city as a centre for business.

One particular topic currently on the minds of entrepreneurs and founders is digitalisation which is transforming the economy and society at breath-taking speed. The federal state and IBB have responded to this development with new support programmes and services for businesses. IBB, for instance, now accepts applications for a host of its products, such as the GRW programme or micro-loans, both on paper or using the online application service.

A number of weeks ago, we also began working with Compeon GmbH, a web-based financing service provider for medium-sized companies. The Compeon web platform offers a new digital access channel for IBB customers who are planning a project in Berlin or with Berlin reference. They can show the requested commercial banks that they wish to make use of support products from IBB and that this should be included in the offer by the respective bank.

Crowd funding is another important source of financing in the digital age. That’s why we have expanded our “Micro-loans from the SME fund” programme to include this. Start-ups and founders can now apply for micro-loans of up to EUR 25,000 also in combination with a supplementary crowd-funding campaign. “IBB MicroCrowd” is the name of the new product which we are offering with the Startnext crowd funding platform.

These examples already show that, in addition to developing modern financing products, we are also increasing our service orientation. You can rest assured that the financing for your entrepreneurial endeavours is in the very best of hands at IBB.

I would like to wish you good luck and every success in all your business endeavours. This 2018/2019 Business Support Guide will definitely help you to make your entrepreneurial aims come true.

Retrospective subsidising is not possible. Furthermore, subsidy funds for the individual programmes are limited and may be exhausted before the programme year is out.

EU SUBSIDY PROGRAMMES IN BERLIN

Numerous business promotion and support programmes in the Federal State of Berlin are co-financed by the European Union under the European Structural and Investment Funds (ESIF). In order to help you find your way, these programmes are marked with a Ø in the table of contents and in the overview tables. This is also indicated on the programme pages by the EU flag alone or additionally by the logo of the European Structural Fund (ERDF or ESF, respectively, refer to page 136). If you have any questions specifically related to programmes which are directly managed by the EU Commission, please contact the Enterprise Europe Network at Berlin Partner für Wirtschaft und Technologie GmbH (address on page 148). This is also where you can obtain information concerning EU support for innovative projects and technology transfer.

BUSINESS SUPPORT AND PROMOTION PROGRAMMES OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

The 2018/2019 Business Support Guide provides an overview of business support and promotion programmes as well as financial assistance measures which can be relevant for enterprises from all industries located in Berlin. Furthermore, the Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy (BMWi) and the Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF) as well as the European Union offer a host of business financing and promotion programmes specifically for developments, for example, in the export sector or technology-orientated industries. It is not possible to include all these programmes in this Business Support Guide. For an overview as well as detailed information concerning financial assistance by the federal government, federal-state governments and the European Union, please refer to the Internet offering of the Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy:

The tables below provide an overview of the support, financing and consultancy offers which are presented in the following chapters of this Business Support Guide:

- Business start-ups (see page 14)

First find the right target group for you. Are you about to start up in business? Offers which are relevant for you are marked with the letter 🟤 in the table of contents and on the programme pages. This letter is also used in the overview tables in the fifth column (from the left). These programmes are compiled in the “Business start-ups” table for a first overview. Please also note that certain programmes are exclusively available to applicants prior to starting up in business whilst other programmes are also available to small, young companies during the first two to three years of establishment. Since certain programmes are also available for both existing companies and start-ups, you will find the letter 🟤 also in other tables.

Are you searching for support programmes for your existing company? The red dots in the sixth column mark those offerings which are relevant for you. Programmes available solely to so-called small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) according to the EU’s definition (refer to page 140) are marked in the seventh column. Offers with a red dot in the fourth column are not subject to any restrictions.

The tables present the key features of the programmes. The page number in the first column (from the left) guides you to detailed information about the respective programme page. Please always check the detailed information on the programme pages first in order to find out whether an offer is suitable for your company’s specific situation.

There is no overview table for the chapter titled “Support programmes: commercial property and space, founder and innovation centres”. You can find the programmes on pages 128 to 134. Page 131 lists centres for women starting up in business. In the same manner as for the support programmes, contact details and Internet addresses are shown where you can find more in-depth information.

This programme is subject to de-minimis rules (refer to page 139).
AIM

- To create and secure permanent jobs in all districts of Berlin by supporting investment in the commercial sector.
- Support by the Federal State of Berlin focuses on investment projects at small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) as well as investment in the health sector, energy technology, transport/mobility and logistics, optical technologies, ICT/media and the creative industry.
- Projects from other sectors can also be supported on condition that the corresponding structural effects exist.

WHO

- Start-ups and companies in the commercial industries with predominantly supra-regional sales unless otherwise non-eligible for support for particular industries/branches.
- Support is generally not provided for investments in relocations from Brandenburg to Berlin.

WHAT

- A pro-rata allowance is granted for investments.
- Support and funds are available for the acquisition or manufacture of assets forming part of the investment project. This does not include, for instance, motor vehicles, aircraft, trains, ships or replacement investments. Capitalised acquisition costs of certain intangible assets are also generally eligible for support. Support and funds are available for projects of the following types:
  - In the case of small and medium-sized enterprises:
    - Investment in new assets
    - Investment in expansion projects
    - Production portfolio diversification into products not yet manufactured there
    - Fundamental change in the entire production process
    - Acquisition of assets of a facility under certain conditions
  - In the case of large enterprises:
    - First-time investment in new business activities:
      - Investment in the establishment of a new facility
      - Investment in the diversification of the activities of a facility under certain conditions
      - Acquisition of assets of a facility under certain conditions and further on condition that another activity is being pursued at the facility
    - First-time investment in the diversification of an existing facility by adding new products or process innovations (in class-C support regions and under certain conditions)
    - Investment projects that enable the company to go beyond national and EU standards for environmental protection or to improve environmental protection in areas where standards are lacking (environmental protection assistance)
- One of the preconditions for support is that investment projects must have a volume of at least EUR 10,000.
Investment projects are only eligible for support if the investment sum, related to one year, exceeds the average depreciation accrued over the past three years - disregarding special depreciation and amortization - by at least 50%, or if the number of permanent jobs at the facility to be supported at the time the investment project starts is increased by at least 10% (= special effort). Each newly created training position is counted as a permanent job. The preconditions are considered to be fulfilled in the case of investments by a company not previously established in the municipality (= district) or if an established company invests in a new business activity and acquires a facility that has been shut-down or is threatened by closure.

The following maximum support and funding rates are permitted in Berlin’s class-C support regions (refer to www.businesslocationcenter.de/foerdergebietskarte): small enterprises: 30%, medium-sized enterprises: 20%, other operating facilities: 10%. Some areas of Berlin are classified as class-D support regions where 20% can be granted to small enterprises, 10% to medium-sized enterprises, and 7.5% to other companies, limited to a sum of EUR 200,000 within three years.

If newly created, highly qualified permanent jobs are given to women, special support of EUR 5,000 can be granted. The maximum support rate may not be exceeded as a result of this.

The basis is part II - commercial sector - of the coordination framework of the common task “improvement of regional economic structure” beginning 25 August 2017 (published on 5 October 2017) as well as Berlin’s rules for support and funding measures from 1 July 2014 to 31 December 2020 (published on 16 September 2016).

HOW

Applications must be submitted to Investitionsbank Berlin using the official application form.

Applications must be submitted to IBB before the investment project is underway. Only then should the project be commenced.

We urgently recommend contacting Investitionsbank Berlin at an early point in time, especially in cases where real property is to be acquired as part of the investment project.

Retroactive support is not permitted.

There is no legal obligation to grant an investment allowance under this programme. The same is applicable to the rates granted.

Horizont 2020 / Horizon 2020
EU framework programme for research and innovation

AIM
- Horizon 2020 is the central instrument implementing the Innovation Union and is geared to achieving the goals of the Europe 2020 strategy. The programme promotes research and innovation activities along the entire value chain: from the idea right through to the development of prototypes.
- The aim is to close the gap that exists between research and market launch. Fast market establishment of new technologies and non-technological developments, services and processes is aimed at securing Europe’s competitiveness.

WHO
- Companies, universities, public and private research institutes, municipalities, associations in co-operation with partners.
- A minimum of three independent institutions from three different countries (member states or associated countries) must participate in a project.
- This newly developed SME instrument expressly addresses small and medium-sized enterprises. They do not necessarily need a consortium partner for successful application as long as “added value for Europe” can be demonstrated and justified.
- The involvement of additional participants from third countries is possible.

WHAT
- Horizon 2020 is based on three key pillars: “Societal challenges”, “Industrial leadership” and “Excellent science”. Each of these priorities will have funding of EUR 27bn, EUR 16bn and EUR 26bn, respectively, up to 2020.
- The three pillars are broken down into theme areas (challenges) according to the structure of the work programme.
- The work programmes will be published on a two-year basis and contain the specific project calls, arranged according to focus areas.
- The individual calls are listed according to the focus areas.
- The official “participants portal” (http://ec.europa.eu/research/participants/portal/desktop/en) can be used to search for the respective call using topic-relevant search words.
- Societal challenges
  - Health, demographic change and wellbeing
  - Food security, sustainable agriculture, marine and maritime research and the bioeconomy
  - Secure, clean and efficient energy
  - Smart, green and integrated transport
  - Climate protection, environment, resource efficiency and raw materials
  - Europe in a changing world
  - Secure societies

Pro FIT-Frühphasenfinanzierung / Pro FIT early phase financing
Programme to promote research, innovation and technologies

AIM
• The aim of Pro FIT early phase financing is to improve financing possibilities for technology companies in the early phase of their establishment.
• Pro FIT early phase financing will make it easier for technology-oriented founders to set up their business infrastructure and personnel capacities and to make use of the necessary services.

WHO
• Applications will be accepted from newly established technology-oriented small firms with their place of business in Berlin who are attempting to perform an innovation project (anchor project).
• The companies should be no older than twelve months in order to receive financing from early phase 1, and no older than 24 months if applying for financing from early phase 2.
• In order to receive Pro FIT early phase financing, a mentor (motivator, networker, sparring partner) is also required who is committed to the newly established company, has the necessary entrepreneurial experience and has at least a small stake in the company’s financing (equal to at least 5% of the funding provided).

WHAT
• During both early phases, financing is available for all of the newly established company’s necessary personnel, investment and operating expenses that are needed to establish and operate the company’s initial infrastructure and used to prepare the anchor project in early phase 1. Support is available for personnel expenses (above all, for the CEO), investment expenditure and current operating costs. The expenses may not be directly linked to the “anchor project” nor incurred in conjunction with sales-related customer orders.
• Financing is provided, depending on the respective early phase, in the form of non-repayable grants and/or low-interest loans. In both early phases, financing is available to cover 100% of expenses eligible for support.
• Early phase 1:
  • Up to 50% of expenses in early phase 1 are financed with a non-repayable grant and a loan.
  • Early phase 1 can last for a maximum of one year.
  • The innovation project (anchor project) must begin during this time and no later than at the end of early phase 1.
• Early phase 2:
  • Expenses in early phase 2 are financed with a loan.
  • Early phase 2 ends at the latest when then anchor project ends.
• Total financing for both phases can amount to a maximum sum of EUR 500,000 with financing in early phase 1 limited to EUR 200,000.
• Loans in early phase 1 are usually granted as interest-free loans.
• Loans in early phase 2 are low-interest loans.
• The loans have a term of up to ten years.
• It is possible to agree to final-maturity payment and a declaration of subordination.
• The loans are granted without the need to provide collateral.

This offer is particularly suitable for business start-ups and young companies.
HOW

In addition to the application form, a detailed business plan (with text and figures) must be submitted online to IBB along with a description of the planned anchor project and details of the mentor for the early phase.

What’s more, the required “early-phase finance planner” must also contain the expenditure expected for the “anchor project”, for other planned financed projects as well as for business included in the profit and loss account.

The key budget items must be explained.

Based on the documents submitted and a personal presentation by the founders, an external expert will assess the matter on the basis of the following aspects: technology, market environment, market launch strategy, budget consistency and team, in order to determine whether the planned business concept is generally suitable for and worth financing. The company’s legal situation will also be examined on the basis of the partnership agreement as well as the SME declaration to be submitted.

If the outcome of this examination is positive, IBB will request additional documents from the applicant company in order to perform its commercial examination. The prospective early phase financing that results from the technical examination may differ from the application in terms of type and amount.

In the next step, the company’s commercial documents as well as the economic standing of the applicant company will be assessed.

The major shareholders must submit suitable information (individuals, for instance, must submit a voluntary disclosure statement).

Based on this, IBB will perform an overall economic assessment, checking whether or not the shareholders have made a reasonable contribution towards the company’s financing.

Only when the application has been received by IBB and after its approval can the early phase project begin at the applicant’s own financial risk (premature commencement). IBB’s approval for premature commencement of the project is typically granted when the outcome of the technical assessment of the business concept was positive.

This programme is subject to de-minimis rules (refer to page 139).
In order to finance projects during the phase of experimental development as well as production development, market preparation and market launch undertaken by small and medium-sized enterprises, support is granted in the form of low-interest loans of up to EUR 1m or a maximum of 80% of the costs eligible for support per project. The following terms and conditions apply to low-interest loans:

- The loans have a term of up to eight years.
- The interest rates on loans are below market conditions. Small enterprises additionally benefit from an interest bonus of 0.25%.
- The loan is normally secured by pro-rata absolute guarantees by the relevant shareholders. Guarantees can be waived if the shareholders contribute a reasonable share towards project and/or company financing.
- Loans for establishing production, market preparation and market launch are granted as de-minimis assistance. This may result in a limit to the loan amount.

HOW

- The proposed project must be clearly described and together with the interactive “Project application” form, the Pro FIT finance planner as well as documents related to the applicant’s legal situation must be submitted to IBB using the secure eAntrag (online) procedure.
- In the case of group projects, application documents must be completed by each project partner. The project description must be drawn up jointly by all of the project partners.
- As soon as the application has been received by IBB, the project can commence at the applicant’s own financial risk. The main risk in this case is that the project may not qualify for support or may not be seen to be worthy of support.
- Based on the documents submitted, two external experts analyse the proposed project in technical terms and assess its market relevance shortly after submission.
- Given a positive outcome of the examination, the possible project financing (type and amount) is determined, and the applicant is requested to submit further documents for the commercial assessment. The prospective Pro FIT financing that results from the technical examination may differ from the application in terms of type and amount.
- In the next step, the company’s commercial documents as well as the applicant’s economic standing will be assessed.
- The major shareholders must submit suitable information (individuals, for instance, must submit a voluntary disclosure statement).
- Based on this, IBB will perform an overall economic assessment, checking whether or not the shareholders have made a reasonable contribution towards the company’s financing.

THE BUSINESS SUPPORT PROGRAMMES

Important technical terms are explained in the Glossary (refer to page 138 and following).
AFBG/Aufstiegs-BAföG / AFBG/Career development grant

Career Development Act (AFBG) as amended and pro-mulgated on 15 June 2016 (Federal Gazette I p. 1450)

AIM

Government funding for career development beyond the level of examination as a skilled worker, journeyman or specialist employee, or beyond the leaving certificate of a technical college.

WHO

Support is available to participants in vocational training programmes who:

- are preparing to train as a master craftsman/woman or industrial foreman/forewoman, educator, technician, commercial clerk, economist or to obtain one of more than 700 comparable qualifications and
- meet with the requirements of the respective training regulations for exam admission or who qualify for the vocational training pursued (pre-qualification).

Student drop-outs or school leavers without any other vocational training qualification but who have the work experience required under the training regulations for further training are eligible for support under this programme. As a precondition, this must be foreseen in the related training regulations.

This also applies to Bachelor graduates who are striving for advanced qualification and who meet the applicable requirements.

There is no age limit.

WHAT

Grants that do not have to be paid back; the grant shares vary depending on what is being supported (the costs of measures, maintenance requirements, etc.).

A low-interest loan with Kreditanstalt für Wiederaufbau (KfW) to cover the difference between the grant share and the maximum support amount.

In order to finance teaching and examination fees, a sum amounting to the fees actually incurred of up to EUR 15,000 can be granted independent of income or assets. 40% of the support is paid as a grant and KfW issues an offer for a low-interest bank loan to cover the remaining amount.

The material costs of a master craftsman’s examination project can be supported up to half the amount of the necessary costs with up to EUR 2,000. 40% of this support is paid as a grant and KfW issues an offer for a low-interest bank loan to cover the remaining amount.

Single parents with children under the age of ten or children with a disability living in their household are eligible for an additional flat-rate childcare allowance of EUR 130 as a grant during the programme, irrespective of income and assets.

When participating in full-time measures, a contribution to living costs can also be approved. This contribution to living costs is irrespective of the income and assets of the participant and of his/her spouse or life partner, as applicable. Support under this programme comprises a grant and the offer of a low-interest loan from KfW.
The maximum monthly contribution to living costs for a single person currently totals EUR 768. This is made up of basic and housing need as well as an increase amount and allowances for health and nursing care insurance, if applicable.

If applicants are married or live in a registered life partnership and are not permanently separated, this amount increases by a maximum monthly sum of EUR 235.

If there are children entitled to children’s allowance, the maximum monthly amount increases by EUR 235 per child.

After deduction of a flat-rate amount of EUR 103, the contribution to living costs, including the increase amount for married or partnered couples, 50% of the support is paid as a grant. A grant of 55% is paid for the increase amount per child. KfW issues an offer for a low-interest bank loan to cover the remaining amount.

If children under the age of ten or children with a disability are being reared by a single parent, a flat-rate monthly childcare allowance of EUR 130 per child is also granted for full-time measures. This allowance is independent of income or assets.

Loan release for successful examination and start-up:
- If the examination is successfully passed, an application can be submitted for release from 40% of the loan to cover teaching and examination fees still payable at this point in time.
- If a company is founded or taken over, or if freelance activities are commenced within three years after passing the exam, KfW can release the borrower (subject to application and proof) from the loan not yet due for repayment at this time to cover training and examination fees subject to the following terms:
  a) 33% if an additional trainee/apprentice was hired with a trainee/apprenticeship term of twelve months or longer,
  b) 33% for an additional employee whose term of regular and permanent employment totalled at least six months at the time of application,
  c) 66% for one additional trainee/apprentice and one additional employee or for two additional employees as long as their employment meets with the employment requirements laid down in a) and b) above.

It is crucial for the company to be in operation for at least one year and that the new jobs or apprenticeship/trainee positions are permanent and have not been terminated.

HOW
- Formal application.
- Education institutes other than public organisations or institutes supervised by the government are obliged to prove that they are applying a quality assurance system.

Consultancy and in-house training

THE BUSINESS SUPPORT PROGRAMMES

Important technical terms are explained in the Glossary (refer to page 138 and following).
Beratungsförderung / Consultancy allowance
Framework directive of the Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy for the promotion of entrepreneurial expertise

AIM
A cost allowance for consultancy fees is to entice enterprises and freelance professionals to avail themselves of external expertise in order to increase their performance and competitiveness and to assist them in adapting to changed economic conditions.

WHO
The support programme for entrepreneurial expertise is designed for:
• young companies which have not been on the market for more than two years
• existing companies from the third year of existence
• companies in economic difficulty - irrespective of company age

The companies must have their registered office and place of operation or a branch office in the Federal Republic of Germany and, during the last financial year before consultancy services were used, may not have employed more than 250 people or recorded annual turnover of more than EUR 50m or an annual balance sheet sum of more than EUR 43m.

The company or the company together with a partner or affiliated company may not exceed the limits for staff and annual turnover or balance sheet sum.

WHAT
Consultancy and advisory services for young and existing companies can be supported within the scope of the following focal areas:
• General consultancy services: regarding all commercial, financial, personnel-related and organisational issues concerning company management
• Special consultancy services: In order to counter structural imbalances, further consultancy services can be supported in addition to general issues.
• Enterprise rescue: Consultancy services are supported for companies in difficulty regarding all questions regarding the restoration of their performance and competitiveness. Additional follow-up consultancy services can be supported in order to reinforce the measures.

Existing companies are not entitled to more than five days per focal area. The consultancy days do not have to be consecutive. The time for preparing the report as well as travel times can be outside this time window. This limitation does not apply to young companies or companies in difficulty; here, the measure can be extended and billed over the entire support period (maximum of six months).

Until the maximum relevant consultancy costs are exhausted in each case (eligible costs), all companies can submit several applications for support per focal area.

Investitionsbank Berlin (IBB) is the business development and promotion bank of the Federal State of Berlin. It supports, in particular, small and medium-sized enterprises in all cycles of their lifetime. Companies of the Berlin-based clusters are another focus. IBB’s Business Customer Centre provides them with advice on the support and financing programmes and informs them of the entire range of business support available in Berlin. This includes the established seminar “We finance your start-up project” on the first Thursday of the month.

The financing offers by IBB comprising allowances, low-interest loans and investments, support start-up and investment projects; they promote modern technologies and offer liquidity assistance.

Applications for support can be submitted and processed electronically using IBB’s “eAntrag” procedure. You can use the IBB customer portal in various ways:
- To process applications for support under selected programmes
- To communicate directly and in a legally binding manner with your IBB contact person
- To conveniently file documents for your application in the customer portal

Detailed information regarding the ‘eAntrag’ procedure is available at www.ibb.de/eantrag. Products that you can apply for using the “eAntrag” procedure are marked accordingly on the programme pages.

As a network partner, IBB’s Business Customer Centre helps you to find just the right point of contact, institute and initiative and is also available when it comes to establishing contact with the respective general or specific advisory centres.

The Business Angels of Business Angels Club Berlin-Brandenburg e. V. (BACB) help the companies of tomorrow get off the ground and they focus on start-ups from the Berlin-Brandenburg region. They promote entrepreneurial activities and accompany founders on the road to self-employment.

Business Angels are specialists in different technological fields, product groups and industries. They are independent, maintain good - even international - contacts and invest in new and scalable business ideas.

At the BACB match-making meetings, selected teams and young companies are given the opportunity to personally present their projects to a larger group of Business Angels and the club’s network partners. If a project is accepted, a project group comprising several Business Angels will support the company and, if necessary, prepare and implement financial investment. Furthermore, the club has formed working groups who can offer assistance in critical situations and for successor schemes.

Relevant information from the business plan is required at the time of contacting the club. The document should not be longer than four DIN A4 pages.
Adequate equity levels, in particular, in the form of venture capital, have become a decisive factor for the success of innovative companies. Since it was set up in 1997, IBB Beteiligungsgesellschaft mbH has become one of the leading sources of venture capital for innovative companies in Berlin.

IBB Beteiligungsgesellschaft mbH and its VC funds have extended syndicated loans of so far more than EUR 1.25bn, including EUR 173m provided by IBB Beteiligungsgesellschaft mbH itself as a lead, co-lead or co-investor. Investments were made in close to 185 companies from the clusters defined within the scope of the joint Berlin-Brandenburg innovation strategy in the fields of life science, industrial technologies, ICT and creative industries.

In addition to a plausible business concept and a unique selling proposition, high growth and value increase potential as well as a good medium-term exit perspective are preconditions for investment.

The support concept of IBB Beteiligungsgesellschaft includes active consultancy and support for its portfolio companies. Seasoned investment professionals are there to support companies in all operative and strategic matters.

IBB Business Team GmbH is a wholly owned subsidiary of Investitionsbank Berlin. Under one roof, it bundles the Coaching BONUS and Transfer BONUS business development programmes as well as the Berlin-Brandenburg Business Plan Competition (BPW) (see page 22), the Messe Deutsche Gründer- und Unternehmertage (deGUT) (German Founders’ and Entrepreneurs’ Days) and the ENEO project.

Grants for business administration coaching services by selected external, highly qualified coaches are available under the Coaching BONUS programme (see page 107) for young and established SMEs in Berlin as well as founders, especially for those with a strong technology orientation or for companies from the creative sector. Furthermore, Berlin-based SMEs already active on the market can avail themselves of customised support when it comes to going international or organising the succession process.

In addition to its coaching programmes, IBB Business Team GmbH offers a range of seminars and workshops as a basis for further professional qualification in business administration and soft skills.

The Transfer BONUS (see page 85) programme benefits technology-orientated SMEs or companies in Berlin with a technology-orientated project. Funding is provided for specific projects that are conducted with a scientific or research institution based in Berlin or Brandenburg.

BPW (see page 22) is Germany’s largest regional founder competition, offering people interested in starting up in business a host of free support measures in order to develop a sound business concept. BPW is organised jointly by Investitionsbank des Landes Brandenburg (ILB) and Vereinigung der Unternehmensverbände in Berlin und Brandenburg e. V.

The offers here and up to page 130 are particularly suitable for business start-ups and young companies.

AIM
- The provision of requirement-orientated, purpose-centred and favourably priced business facilities should enable the formation of operating location communities for those starting up in business or young entrepreneurs in the trades, services and in the production sectors as well as in technology-orientated industries.
- The advisory and other services on offer in some centres mean that companies can develop in line with their direct aims.

WHO
- Individuals or legal entities whose main business activities are based in Berlin and who are suitable both in terms of person and qualifications.
- Subsidiaries of large corporations are not eligible.
- Preconditions for this include a tenable business concept, ecologically compatible services or products as well as prospects for economic success and growth.
- The company should not have been established more than three years previous.

WHAT
- The centre management of the “founder centres” (GZ) offer facilities for start-ups with service and support offers, such as reception, post and telephone services, typing pool, conference and beverage services, conference rooms and copy centres.
- The technology-orientated founder centres additionally offer communication and co-operation on site, in particular, with universities and/or application-orientated research institutes, as well as community activities. The centre management offers support in economic and technical matters, in PR work or when it comes to establishing co-operation relations with national and, in some cases, international partners.
- These offerings are bundled at the innovation centres/parks which were established primarily for the development of future-orientated technology bases.

HOW
- The rent terms are always determined on the basis of the location in question.
- The subsidies result from favourable rents (particularly with a view to the development standard and the infrastructure provided) as well as the specifically designed environment.
- The occupation period in a founder centre is usually unlimited.
- The regular occupation period in a technology centre set up with funds from the common task “improvement of regional economic structure” (GRW) is eight years max. Just like with the founder centres, a rent contract for an indefinite term can be entered into at the overall location.
- Services can be used individually.
- The costs of those services that cannot be directly allocated to individual companies will be included in a general levy or in the ground rent, respectively.

Support under the European Structural and Investment Funds in Berlin

2014-2020 STRUCTURAL FUNDS
In the 2014 to 2020 programming period, the Federal State of Berlin will receive around EUR 635m in funds from the European Regional Development Fund (ERDF) as well as EUR 215m from the European Social Fund (ESF).

AREAS WHERE SUPPORT IS APPLIED
The ERDF is the most important EU regional financing instrument. This fund contributes to measures that are strengthening economic and social cohesion in the European Community by compensating for regional imbalances.

The ERDF funds are used in Berlin to a large extent to promote innovation. Almost 50% of ERDF funds is earmarked for research, development and the market launch of new products and solutions and in order to strengthen highly innovative companies. Investment activities by small and medium-sized companies as well as founders are also supported. In order to achieve the ambitious energy and climate policy goals of Berlin, Berlin-based companies can benefit from support for investments in energy-saving technologies, from the use of renewable energy and the change in production processes.

This will be implemented within the scope of the 2014-2020 Operational Programme. Information regarding the main focus of the programme, selection criteria and contacts as well as a funding guide can be found on the website of the Senate Department for Economics, Energy and Public Enterprises.

The ESF is the most important instrument of the European Union for promoting employment in Europe. It improves access to better jobs, offers qualification programmes and supports social integration.

The funds from the ESF are largely used to facilitate access to employment for those looking for jobs and for the unemployed and to improve the mobility of labour. These funds will be used in Berlin in order to consolidate and improve the labour market successes achieved. In light of demographic developments, the aim here is to fully exploit the potential to attract skilled people.

This will be implemented within the scope of the 2014-2020 Operational Programme. Information regarding the main focus of ESF funding, selection criteria and contacts as well as a comprehensive collection of documents can be found on the website of the Senate Department for Economics, Energy and Public Enterprises.

Support programmes that are backed by funding from the ERDF and the ESF are always marked with the corresponding logo.
EUROPEAN TERRITORIAL CO-OPERATION / INTERREG 2014-2020

Berlin will benefit from support under the “European Territorial Co-operation” (INTERREG) programme, i.e. from ERDF-financed co-operation between partners from different countries of the EU and from third countries. INTERREG is implemented in three main focus areas:

Cross-border co-operation - INTERREG V A:
Regions near the German-Polish border in Brandenburg, Mecklenburg-Vorpommern and Saxony are supported as well as the west-Polish partner regions. Stakeholders in Berlin cannot participate directly, however, they can benefit from the so-called 20% flexibility option of the Brandenburg-Poland programme. This enables financing for a partner involved in a project but outside the co-operation area with a total of up to 20% of the ERDF project budget. Support is also available under the “Investment in Growth and Employment” target as part of the ERDF “Internationalisation Programme” (refer to page 62).

Transnational co-operation - INTERREG V B:
Berlin and Brandenburg are represented in two of the 14 transnational co-operation areas and are hence entitled to submit applications in Central Europe (CENTRAL area) and in the Baltic Sea Region (BSR).

Interregional co-operation - INTERREG EUROPE (formerly INTERREG IV C):
In order to improve regional policies, support is provided to promote interregional co-operation and exchange between partners from several member states regarding “research, technological development and innovation”, “competitiveness of SMEs”, “low-carbon business” as well as “environment and resource efficiency”. At present, however, it is not possible to apply for project funding within the scope of INTERREG EUROPE.

Glossary

BEIHILFEN / ALLOWANCES
Allowances are economic benefits paid from public budgets or budgets for which the government is responsible and which are granted to certain enterprises, for instance, in the form of low-interest loans or subsidies for financing a project. Since these allowances can influence competition between companies and/or trade within the EU, such allowances may only be granted in exceptional cases (look at “De-minimis”). The share of allowances as a percentage of total financing is usually capped (maximum allowance intensity).

BETEILIGUNG - STILLE BETEILIGUNG / PARTNERSHIP - DORMANT PARTNERSHIP
An investment company, a company or an individual holds shares which are recorded in the commercial register. The investment capital counts as equity. The articles of association determine the extent of profit sharing, as well as voting and control rights. A dormant partnership is based on a contribution to equity by an investor who, however, waives all or most voting or control rights. Irrespective of the company’s success, the investor usually receives a fixed return to be paid at regular intervals. These investments are often made for a limited term. The conditions for termination - i.e. redemption or sale of the investment to third parties - are laid down in the contract.

BÜRGSCHAFT - LANDESBÜRGSCHAFT / GUARANTEE - FEDERAL-STATE GUARANTEE
A guarantee is a contract for a unilateral obligation in which the guarantor undertakes to the creditor to ensure fulfilment of the debtor’s obligation. The guarantee programmes are designed to help founders and companies lacking sufficient collateral to obtain bank loans for their projects. However, the debtor, the founder or the managing shareholder is usually expected to furnish an absolute guarantee for the entire loan sum. Guarantee banks usually issue so-called default guarantees which do not become payable until all collateral has been realised and, if applicable, until forced execution of the debtor’s assets has failed.

DARLEHEN - ZINSVERGÜNSTIGTE DARLEHEN / LOANS - LOW-INTEREST LOANS
A loan is a contract for an obligation where the borrower receives money for the medium to long-term financing of his or her projects in one or more instalments and undertakes to repay interest and principal when these fall due. Loans under the support programmes are usually linked to subsidised interest rates and often include a longer, redemption-free period.
DE-MINIMIS

Government support for companies can distort competition (look at “Allowances”). In the European Union, however, there is a general ban on any kind of competition-distorting government support for companies. The general de-minimis rule (refer to Regulation (EC) No. 1407/2013, Official Journal L 352 of 24 December 2013) is a very common exception to the general ban on subsidies. Under this exception rule, subsidies are permitted if their value is below a certain threshold value which, however, is not just applicable to the applicant company but also to all of its affiliates. In this context, the European Commission assumes that such subsidies, which are granted in the form of “de-minimis subsidies”, have no perceivable impact on trade and competition between the member states. On this basis, governments and/or government agencies can grant financial support to a company or a group of companies without an obligation to notify the European Commission in advance of this subsidy or without the need to obtain the European Commission’s approval on condition that such subsidies do not exceed a threshold value of EUR 200,000 within the current and the two preceding years. This limit is EUR 100,000 for companies in the commercial road freight transport sector, however, these companies are not permitted to receive any de-minimis aid for the acquisition of road-freight vehicles. In the case of grants, the full amount is counted in calculating the above-stated threshold value. In the case of other financing instruments (such as low-interest loans, guarantees), the benefit (subsidy value) is determined by calculation. In order to apply for de-minimis support, the company must not be in insolvency proceedings, nor should it meet the requirements for opening of insolvency proceedings when requested by its creditors. If de-minimis funds are granted as a loan or a guarantee, large companies (look at “SMEs”) also require a minimum rating of B–.

In addition to these rules for general de-minimis aid, there are also specific rules for the agricultural sector, the fishing industry and so-called services of general economic interest which are, however, of little practical relevance for Berlin. In addition to de-minimis rules, there are also other principles which can be used as a basis for granting support. The respective principle of state-aid law is referred to in the relevant programme guidelines or brochures.

ERP

The European Recovery Program was called the “Marshall Plan” for reconstruction after World War II. Today, the ERP special funds are primarily used to re-finance low-interest loans.

FREIE BERUFE / FREELANCE PROFESSIONALS

Freelance professions are defined as self-employment in science, the arts and writing, teaching and education. Freelance professions also include higher-level personal services requiring a higher level of education (college or university degree). Freelance professionals are not obliged to have their trades registered. However, certain freelance professionals who provide a personal service, e.g. architects, tax advisors, must obtain the respective license to practice.
KMU / SMES

On 1 January 2005, the European Commission introduced a new definition for small and medium-sized enterprises. Compliance with this so-called SME criterion is an important precondition for many subsidy programmes. Micro-enterprises are businesses that employ less than ten employees and which record annual sales or a balance sheet total of no more than EUR 2m. Small enterprises are businesses that employ less than 50 employees and which record annual sales or a balance sheet total of no more than EUR 10m. Medium-sized enterprises are businesses that employ less than 250 employees and which record annual sales of EUR 50m max. or a balance sheet total of no more than EUR 43m. The precise approach when determining SME status depends on whether the company is completely independent or part of a group of companies. In such cases, both participation by the company submitting an application as well as participation by other companies in the company submitting the application must be considered. Since SME status typically brings with it special benefits, European law not only requires a de jure examination of whether companies are related to each other but also of whether de facto a so-called “single economic unit” exists that meets the SME criteria.

KOMBINIERBARKEIT / COMBINATION WITH OTHER PROGRAMMES

Combining funds from different programmes is generally possible and welcomed. However, the maximum subsidy sums defined by the EU (“subsidies”) may not be exceeded. However, certain subsidy programmes cannot be combined with each other (non-combination rule).

MEZZANINE-KAPITAL / MEZZANINE CAPITAL

Mezzanine capital or mezzanine financing instruments are financing forms which can have a position between equity (so-called equity mezzanine) and external capital (debt mezzanine). Equity mezzanine can be issued, for example, in the form of profit participation rights, participation certificates or dormant partnerships. Other conceivable forms are convertible and warrant bonds. Debt mezzanine must be usually carried as a liability in the balance sheet. The equity character arises when the loan or dormant partnership is subject to subordination. However, the form of financing depends on the design of the agreement from case to case. It ultimately determines whether the capital is to be treated as debt or at least as economic equity. In general, however, mezzanine capital as “hybrid capital” is to contribute towards improving a company’s financing and balance sheet structure and hence to expand the classical loan availability or permit complex project financing. The stronger the equity nature of the mezzanine product or at least the higher the risk of the mezzanine capital source compared to a real lender, the higher the interest rate and hence the return claim of the mezzanine lender. And the more the mezzanine investor will demand rights equivalent to those of the equity investors (rights of involvement and co-determination under company law). Although mezzanine capital was initially mostly supplied by private equity companies, special mezzanine funds or even banks themselves have become increasingly common today. The requirements for assessing a mezzanine capital recipient are generally comparable to the requirements which every equity investor expects a company to fulfil. A business plan, a convincing business model, above-average growth opportunities and sufficient cash-flows are just some of the important aspects. Mezzanine financing schemes can be designed in a very flexible manner with regard to maturities and other terms and conditions. Anything which is economically sensible and desired can, in principle, be expressed in agreements. The statutory requirements are significantly less restrictive than, for instance, in the case of open partnerships. On a contract level, it is primarily termination provisions, interest rates, profit and loss rules or redemption procedures which decide whether the capital invested is to be considered as equity or debt with a view to liability and taxation. In international accounting according to International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), mezzanine capital is classified as equity or debt on the basis of the actual agreement. There is, however, a trend towards treating mezzanine capital as debt. Furthermore, securities evidenced by certificates which can be traded on the stock exchange, such as participation certificates, are subject to approval by the Federal Financial Supervisory Authority (BaFin).

SUBVENTIONS WERT / SUBSIDY VALUE
The subsidy value is the monetary sum of all grants and subsidies which a company receives during a defined period on the basis of different subsidy and grant programmes (look at “De-minimis”). In the case of a grant, the subsidy value corresponds to the amount of the grant. If a low-interest loan is granted, the subsidy value is the difference between the standard market interest rate (reference rate published by the European Commission) and the effective rate of the loan granted.

UNTERNEHMEN IN SCHWIERIGKEITEN / COMPANIES IN DIFFICULTY
Public support (look at “Allowances”) for companies in financial difficulty causes considerably greater distortion of competition that support for healthy businesses. Support or subsidies for companies in difficulty are hence normally ruled out. SMEs and large enterprises must always be qualified as “companies in difficulty” if the conditions for opening insolvency proceedings are fulfilled or if more than half the book equity in the case of partnerships or of the capital stock of corporations has been used up. Special rules apply to young SMEs for a period of up to three years after starting out in business, i.e. during the initial period where financial problems cannot be ruled out. In such cases, companies are hence not classified as being in difficulty unless the preconditions for opening insolvency proceedings are fulfilled. Furthermore, large enterprises are additionally deemed to be in difficulty if their indebtedness based on book value exceeded 7.5 percent during the last two years and if the EBITDA to interest expenditure ratio is below 1.0. Companies in difficulty in Berlin can only apply for support within the scope of support for consultancy services offered by the Federal Office of Economics and Export Control (BAFA) and the BERLIN liquidity assistance programme and subject to strict preconditions. As long as a measure granted in this context is still in effect, the company benefiting from the measure is considered to be in difficulty so that it cannot receive support under any other programme during this time.

ZUSCHUSS, BEDINGT RÜCKZAHLBARER / GRANT, CONDITIONALLY REPAYABLE
The financing of certain projects particularly worth subsidising can be partly subsidised by a grant that is directly linked to the project, i.e. to the investment or equipment / labour costs applied for. In contrast to a loan, a grant is interest-free and does not have to be repaid. This is conditional upon proof that the funds applied for were used for the agreed purposes, and that the conditions stated in conjunction with the pledge of funds were adhered to. A conditionally repayable grant can be awarded for projects where an insufficient return is to be expected in the case of an average or below-average success of the project. If, however, a higher return is achieved, the grant or a respective share of the grant must be repaid.
